

OFFICE OF THE PUBLIC PRINTER,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

March 3, 1891.

Superintendent,

U.S. Mint,

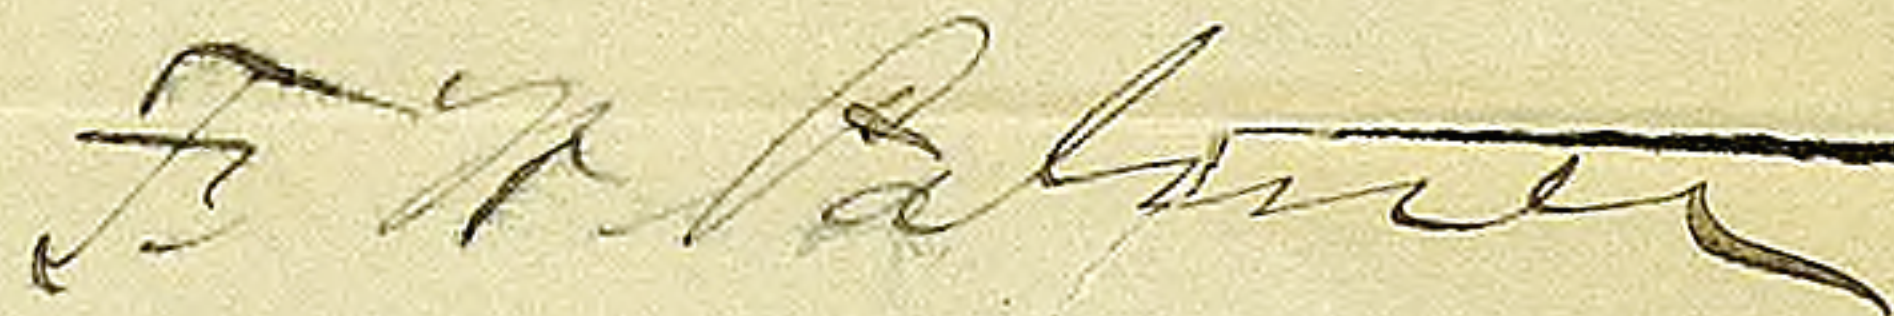

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

This Office has on hand a large quantity (probably 2,500 or 3,000) old book covers, as well as leather side-titles for books, which have been stamped in gold.

Please inform me whether or not the Mint has facilities for burning out this gold, and, if so, whether you would be willing to do the work, and turn the proceeds over to this Office.

Very respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "F. P. Palmer". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Public Printer.

Office of Public Printer.
Washington, D.C.
March 3. 1891

My
J. H. Tatmer
Public Printer.

Relative to Old Book Covers
Stamped in Gold.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 169

[Abstract:] Relative to old book covers stamped in gold.

Office of the Public Printer,
Washington, D.C.
March 3, 1891

Superintendent,
U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

This Office has on hand a large quantity (probably 2,500 or 3,000) old book covers, as well as leather side-titles for books, which have been stamped in gold.

Please inform me whether or not the Mint has facilities for burning out this gold, and, if so, whether you would be willing to do the work, and turn the proceeds over to this Office.

Very respectfully,
F.N. Palmer
Public Printer.